"I say to you, my friends, that in spite of the difficulties and frustrations of the moment I still have a dream. It is a dream deeply rooted in the American dream.

I have a dream that one day this nation will rise up and live out the true meaning of its creed: We hold these truths to be self-evident; that all men are created equal.

I have a dream that one day on the red hills of Georgia the sons of former slaves and the sons of former slaveowners will be able to sit down together at the table of brotherhood."

freshmen face

Beginning at the bottom, the Class of '73 worked diligently during the year toward their goal of being at the top. Wondering where to go, confused at the mod system, and laboring over schoolwork, the Freshman Class still had time to participate actively in school events. Cheering at football, basketball, and baseball games, sponsoring clothing and toy drives, and plastering the walls of MDS with posters during Spirit Week kept class spirit high. It was a long, hard year made easier by the good times the class shared.

Because they are too young for some activities and too old for others, sophomores lead quite difficult lives. Nevertheless, the Sophomore Class of Mt. de Sales welcomed the new year with unlimited enthusiasm. Experiencing some of the old along with the new, members of the class undertook their projects with pep and energy indicating their willingness to serve MDS. With class officers leading the way, the class of '72 has taken just one more step in attaining its four-year goal.

Returning to school in September as juniors, the Class of '71 met new classmates, new teachers and new subjects. As upper classmen and as officers in various clubs, they assumed greater responsibility. They sponsored the home-coming bonfire and skit and led the school in the publications drive. Serving as hostess for new students and as models in the Alumni Fashion Show, the juniors also sponsored a successful Junior-Senior Prom.

The enthusiastic response to this year's Student Council election results encouraged the new leaders to get a fresh start and some new ideas for a profitable year. With leadership and determination, the '69-'70 student leaders coordinated Homecoming activities, a hay ride and bonfire, the publication and sale of Student Directories, and a candy sale.

As always, Mt. de Sales is proud to give credit to its honor students. This year, three additional seniors and six juniors were welcomed into the National Honor Society. Two seniors received special recognition as National Merit Finalists, and Pat McKenna and Karen Sohl were named Best Citizens. Pat, Karen, and Carolyn Lamb were named the Outstanding Teen-Agers among the seniors.

The planning of pages, the writing of articles, the pasting of galleys, the proof-reading of copy—all these are steps in the production of The Sales Sheet. Under the direction of its first male editor and a new moderator, the Press Club published four issues of the school newspaper. Hard-working and enthusiastic editors proved that The Sales Sheet still plays a vital role in Mt. de Sales life.

SPEED was the slogan that helped yearbook club members raise $3,500 in their successful publications drive in early October.

After financial matters were settled, actual production began. Drawing layouts, planning and taking pictures, writing captions, and typing copy kept staff members busy during the winter months. March brought the last-minute rush to meet the deadline. Finally, the material was on its way to the publisher. Another year was recorded for posterity!

Work mixed with pleasure resulted in two major presentations, the Region play, The Great Choice, and the senior play, Gidget. With much new talent combined with the old, the Dramatics Club of '69-'70 enjoyed a successful year.

Mt. de Sales activities wouldn't be complete without a Social Service program. This program comprises three very active groups—the Red Cross Club, the Social Service Club, and the Young Athletes of Christ. These clubs perform many services such as collecting toys for orphanages, visiting old folks' homes, and performing household tasks for people who are unable to do for themselves.

Under the direction of Coach Burdette, Key Club members cooperated to gain experience in social work, to develop leadership, and to help promote this year's community activities. In March, several members attended the state convention in Augusta.

In the varied extra-curricular program, the Math and Chess Clubs play an active part also. Sr. M. Bernadine's Math Club made several field trips in their study of available careers in math. In March, Coach Garvin's Chess Club sponsored an intramural tournament.

Meeting every other week, the language clubs have as their primary function to study the cultural and historical backgrounds of France, Spain, and ancient Rome. In March the French club sponsored a French dinner. For the Spanish club, the highlight of the year was the April bus trip to St. Augustine.

French Club officers M. Jackson, J. McGoldrick, and J. Andros check the menu for the dinner they sponsored.

move

The '69-'70 football season was filled with excitement! It will be hard to forget the most thrilling game of the year in which de Sales walked off with a 12-6 victory over Warren County. The defeat of Sparta not only added another victory, but also the prestige of a region title. Although our Cavaliers lost a hard-fought battle against Savannah Country Day in the semi-finals, there is still the satisfaction of having reached for the stars.

The highlight of the football season was the honor received by Coach Garvin who was nominated Coach of the Year.

Spirit Week, skits, pep rallies, as well as football games, kept cheerleaders "on the jump" most of the year. Practice began during the warm days of August to prepare for the opening football game in early September. Weekly games provided fun and excitement. As the season progressed, the cheerleaders took pride in playing an active part in the school's most successful football season.

One of the most exciting games of the basketball season was a victory over Twiggs County when the tied game was forced into overtime. De Sales emerged victorious and the season progressed. Although this wasn't one of their best seasons, the Cavaliers managed to achieve an impressive winning record.

YOU don't have to wait until you embark on your career to begin your savings program. Many students take a portion of their wages from part-time jobs or their allowance and consistently place it in a Home Federal savings account. With high interest as an extra incentive, savings can become a habit!
